Staff Study No. 16 Draft Outline May 23, 1955

Tel land bear from

Concess Defense Policy Perior

Valle Policies on Enforcement of Controls

(General en Ho, 8)

- 8. With respect to the enforcement of strategic trade controls, what policies should the U.S. pursue during the next foregoodle period?
- I. COM Enforcement
 - A. Present Control Agreements and Understandings (descriptive)
 - l. Frinary controls ever export of strategic goods
 - 2. Ancillary controls
 - a. IC/DV System
 - b. TAC Sebase
 - c. Transactions and financial controls
 - d. Veyage licensing controls
 - e. Sunkering ountrols
 - Jo Multilateral emphange of information on illegal K/v trade transactions
 - S. Avaluation of Effectiveness of above Central Agreements and Understandings
 - C. Extension of CoCM Agreements and Understanding to Non-CoCM Countries
- II. V.S. Enforcement Measures Taken Only on Bilateral and/or Unilateral Sucis
 - A. U.S. Massres
 - le Battle Act termination of aid provisions (Title I and II)
 - 2. Administrative Action Program
 - 3. Compliance Proceedings Department of Commerce
 - b. Foreign Assets Central
 - 5. Controls over femeign sains of surplus strategic equipment Department of Defense

DOC Waiver Letter In ERU File

- 6. Divergion Control Not and related activities, including intalligence collection
- 7. Watch List and other commercial intelligence operations
- 5. Exchange of technical teams under Title III of Battle Act
- 8. Evaluation of Effectiveness of Above Enforcement Feasures
- III. Analysis of Problems and Deficiencies of Unforcement
 - A. Multilateral Enforcement Seasures
 - l. Problem of maintaining enthusiasm for an effective implementation of the enforcement program
 - 2. Problem of uniformity of controls
 - 3. Problem of differential levels of control over trade with the Soviet bloc in Europe and Communist China
 - b. Froblems erising from inadequate legal bases for controls (control systems, populations for violations, etc.)
 - 8. U.S. Mileteral and/or Unilateral Enforcement Homeogree
 - Effect on PC's of V.S. efforts to supplement their implementation of international controls
 - a. Myereton Cases
 - b. Administrative Action
 - 2. Expenditure of U.S. goodwill as result of U.S. pressure for effective implementation of the enforcement program
 - 3. Problems arising from the enforcement of U.S. controls over non-I/L commodities
 - IV. Possible Puture Courses of Action

(Assumption: Indefinite Continuation of Cold War)

- l. Affect improvements in multilateral and unilateral enforcement measures
- 2. Improve intelligence collection and dissemination
- 3. Centime effor White, mp-FC exoperation and participate in enforcement measures by 32
- h. Encourage multilateral emchange of information and emoperation in handling illegal 8/8 trade transactions (including de-emphasis 0.8. police function)

LLLLLI